

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day

15 June 2017

TEA: Talking Elder Abuse Art Competition

Elder abuse

Every year, one in twenty older persons experiences some form of abuse at the hands of someone they trust¹. It is estimated that only one in five cases of elder abuse is reported.

You can be a part of changing these statistics for the better.

¹ One year prevalence estimates vary greatly between studies. UK 2-4.6%, Livemore 5.4%

TEA: Talking Elder Abuse Art Competition

To mark World Elder Abuse Awareness Day, the Helpline has developed TEA: Talking Elder Abuse art competition. Help raise awareness of elder abuse and the Helpline's work by participating!

Talk Elder Abuse whilst creating a work of art. It's via these conversations that pathways to awareness and prevention are conceived.

Get involved! Entry is open to anyone!

Your creative work of art can be a painting, photograph, drawing or poem, using the theme Positive Ageing as your inspiration.

There are great prizes to be won, so join in!

Full terms and conditions and entry forms are available via the Helpline's website www.elderabusehelpline.com.au/for-everyone/WEAAD or email eahru@chcs.com.au
